Santa to Visit “Cops and Kids” Community Basketball Game

Riverside, CA – On Tuesday, December 14th, 2010, the Riverside Police Department and the City of Riverside Parks and Recreation Department will host a “Cops and Kids” basketball game at the Arlanza Community Center. The “Cops” team will consist of Police Department personnel from a variety of Divisions including Patrol, Special Operations, Centralized Investigations, Communications, Support Services, and the Forensic Evidence Unit. The “Kids” team will consist of teenagers and young adults who will proudly represent Riverside’s Arlanza Neighborhood.

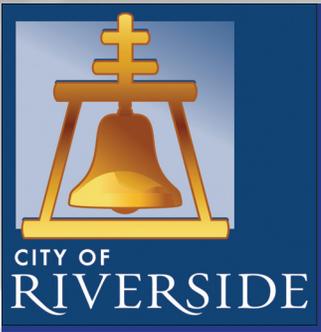

This exciting event demonstrates the Police Department’s commitment to strengthening community partnerships and to enhancing their relationship with the youth of Riverside.

This free event will begin at 6:00 P.M and will include:

- A special rendition of the National Anthem and a half-time performance by the Bryant Park’s “Baby Girls Dance Group”
- Riverside Police K-9 Demonstration
- Christmas Carolers
- Appearance by Officer McGruff
- A special visit from Santa Claus

The Arlanza Community Center is located in Bryant Park at 7950 Philbin Avenue, Riverside, CA 92505.
