

The Community Police Review Commission

- One of 15 Riverside City Boards & Commissions
- Established on April 11, 2000
- Riverside Municipal Code Chapter 2.76
- Section 810 of the Riverside City Charter

On December 28, 1998,
 Tyisha Miller, a 19-year-old African-American woman, was shot and killed by four City of Riverside police officers when she had reached for the gun in her lap.
 In the aftermath of this incident,
 RPD worked with the State Attorney General's Office
 to bring about the stipulated changes.
 This incident also resulted in the Riverside City Council's creation of the Community Police Review Commission.

On April 11, 2000,
 the Riverside City Council unanimously approved Ordinance No. 6516, which amended the Riverside Municipal Code by adding Chapter 2.76, titled Community Police Review Commission Ordinance.

On November 2, 2004,
 60% of Riverside's voters said
 "Yes" to Measure II.

This vote by the citizens of Riverside put the Commission in the City Charter.

Only a vote by the citizens can change this.

	II - CITY OF RIVERSIDE CHARTER AMENDMENT
	Yes	No
Precinct Totals	27571	18240
Absentee Totals	13185	9200
Grand Totals	40756	27440

The Commission's Mission

To promote public confidence in the professionalism and accountability of the sworn staff of the Riverside Police Department.

The Commission's Purpose

By ordinance, the purpose of the Community Police Review Commission is:

- to promote effective, efficient, trustworthy, and just law enforcement in the City of Riverside;
- to bring its findings and recommendations regarding law enforcement policies and practices to the attention of the City;
- to ensure good relations between those who enforce the laws and the diverse populace whom they serve.

The Commission's Duties, Powers, & Functions

By ordinance, the duties, powers, and functions of the Community Police Review Commission are:

- to advise the Mayor and City Council on all police / community relations issues.
- to conduct public outreach to educate the community on the purpose of the Commission.
- to receive complaints of misconduct against sworn employees of RPD that are filed within six (6) months of the date of the alleged misconduct.

- to review and investigate the death of any individual arising out of or in connection with the actions of a sworn police officer.
- to conduct a hearing on filed complaints or Commission initiated investigations when such hearing, at the discretion of the Commission, will facilitate the fact finding process.
- to the extent permissible by law, exercise the power of subpoena.
- to make findings concerning allegations in the filed complaint to the City Manager and the Police Chief.
- to review and advise the Police Department in matters pertaining to police policies and practices.

Who Does the Commission Represent?

- The community's perspective on the citizen complaint and investigative process – hence its name:
Community Police Review Commission
- It is NOT an adversarial body.
- It is NOT an advocate for the complaining party nor the Riverside Police Department.
- The Commission offers a community perspective of the RPD that is available to the citizens of Riverside, those who visit the City of Riverside, policy makers, City and Police managers, and line-level police personnel.

The Commission's Structure

- Commissioners are nine residents representing all wards of the City of Riverside.
- Commissioners are appointed by the City Council and can serve no more than two consecutive four-year terms.
- Terms are staggered so that the terms for three Commissioners expire during the same year.
- The Commission elects a Chair and Vice-Chair annually.
- Commissioners receive no financial compensation.
- The City funds two paid Staff: the CPRC Manager and Administrative Assistant
- The CPRC Manager will appoint an Independent Investigator to conduct a review of RPD investigations, contact additional witnesses, and photograph pertinent scenes as deemed necessary.
