

Wellness Program Disclosure

HIPAA Wellness Notice

Your health plan is committed to helping you achieve your best health. Rewards for participating in a wellness program are available to all participants. If you think you might be unable to meet a standard for a reward under this wellness program, you might qualify for an opportunity to earn the same reward by different means. Contact Jennifer Brown, Senior Human Resources Analyst, at 3900 Main Street, Riverside, CA 92522, 951-826-5639, JKBrown@RiversideCA.gov and we will work with you (and, if you wish, with your doctor) to find a wellness program with the same reward that is right for you in light of your health status, if you are eligible for an alternate standard.

EEOC Wellness Notice

The City of Riverside Wellness Program is a voluntary wellness program available to all employees. The program is administered according to federal rules permitting employer-sponsored wellness programs that seek to improve employee health or prevent disease, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008, and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, as applicable, among others.

Employees who choose to participate in the wellness program may receive incentives in the form of giveaways or gift cards for maintaining weight, walking, physical activity, healthy eating habits, and/or participating in wellness educational events. Although you are not required to participate, only employees who do so will receive the incentive.]

Additional incentives of up to may be available for employees who participate in certain health-related activities or achieve certain health outcomes. If you are unable to participate in any of the health-related activities or achieve any of the health outcomes required to earn an incentive, you may be entitled to a reasonable accommodation or an alternative standard.

Your results will be used to provide you with information to help you understand your current health and potential risks. You also are encouraged to share your results or concerns with your own doctor.

Protections from Disclosure of Medical Information

We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your personally identifiable health information. Although the wellness program and the City of Riverside may use aggregate information it collects to design a program based on identified health risks in the workplace, Blue Shield and Kaiser will never disclose any of your personal information either publicly or to the employer, except as necessary to respond to a request from you for a reasonable accommodation needed to participate in the wellness program, or as expressly permitted by law. Medical information that personally identifies you that is provided in connection with the wellness program will not be provided to your supervisors or managers and may never be used to make decisions regarding your employment.

Your health information will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or otherwise disclosed except to the extent permitted by law to carry out specific activities related to the wellness program, and you will not be asked or required to waive the confidentiality of your health information as a condition of participating in the wellness program or receiving an incentive. Anyone who receives your information for purposes of providing you services as part of the wellness program will abide by the same confidentiality requirements. The only individual(s) who will receive your personally identifiable health information is your health carrier in order to provide you with services under the wellness program.
