

Inland Library System Presents

Coming
FREE
to a Library
Near You

This workshop provides out-of-the-box, innovative, and imaginative ideas that turn the job search process from reactive to proactive and puts the job seeker or career changer in the driver's seat to finally "GET," not "HAVE" to go to work, even in a bleak economy.

Career Vision is for everyone

- Unemployed and Underemployed
  - Part time and Full Time Job Seekers
  - Students, Recent High School and College Grads
  - GED's to PhD's and Minimum Wage to 6 Figure Earners
  - Veterans and Career Changers
  - Retirees seeking supplemental income
  - Professionals working with populations listed above
- Come prepared to embark on an uplifting, motivational, and thought provoking analytical journey to:
- Discover your Career Vision to expand your job search
  - Identify "where" you want to work not "what" you want to be
  - Create your "I AM" tattoo
  - Build a Cold Stone resume with or without experience
  - Analyze job descriptions using a wedding registry
  - Create an interview chart using the Banana Cream Pie Model
  - And much more...

No registration required, arrive early as space is limited

Note this is a 6 hour training , please bring a bag lunch

Presenter Jamie Beck is a former CSU Career Counselor and has a Master's Degree in Human Services with an emphasis in Social Systems and a concentration in Family and Work. Career Vision has been reshaping the way job seekers fundamentally conceptualize, search, and apply for work throughout Southern California for the past 5 years.
