FIRST SUNDAYS

Fun Activities Available At Six Locations....Admission is Free... Each Month is Different!

Sunday, February 2, 2014

1 - 4 pm | Free!

ME AND MY SHADOW

Riverside Metropolitan Museum

In honor of Groundhog's Day, we'll be playing around with shadows. Learn how to make cool animal shapes with your hands, make a paper shadow puppet to create stories of your own and learn about the wacky tradition of how a groundhog's shadow can predict the weather!

PILLOWS INSPIRED BY "THE LITTLE HOUSE"

Riverside Public Library

Make your own pillow inspired by "The Little House" series. From 1-2. From 2-3 enjoy a mind mesmerizing program from Michael Mezmer. Don't lay your head down yet. You still have time from 3-4 to make your own Pillow.

THE YEAR OF THE FOX

Fox Riverside Theater Foundation on the mall***

Discover the Fox at this month's First Sunday event! Stop by and learn about the Fox Theater's rich history and make your own "fox" origami. Make sure to get your family's name on a Hollywood Star and be part of the Fox "Walk of Fame!" There will be a chance to enter a special ticket drawing to see The Sing-Off Tour in March. Also joining us this month are the Riverside Children's Theater and the Association of Women in Science from UCR.

***PLEASE NOTE: this program is located on Mission Inn and Main on the Downtown pedestrian mall area.

CELEBRATING CULTURES: HAWAII

Mission Inn Museum

Join the Mission Inn Museum as we celebrate cultures that influenced the beautiful art and architecture of the Mission Inn. This month we will be creating bright and colorful tissue paper flowers to make into leis, headbands, or bracelets! Flower leis are popular throughout the Pacific Islands, and the influence of these nations can be seen at the Mission Inn. During World War II, the hotel's Court of the Orient was converted to the Lea Lea Room, which became a place for military officers to hold parties and dinners. Lea Lea means "room of laughter" in Hawaiian and the room was filled with colorful and festive decorations inspired by the "South Seas" island nations.

VALENTINE'S DAY AND MORE

Riverside Art Museum

February is the month of love, so join us in celebrating Valentine's Day by making your very own cards and creating heart print through the process of printmaking. Enjoy collaging, coloring, cutting, and pasting your very own Valentine's Day Card. Join us at 2:00 for Winter Tales with Karen Rae Kraut and Jay De Angelo featuring "Hats for the Jizos" from Japan and the Russian tale of "The Little Snow Maiden." Join us for a Gluck Contemporary Dance Ensemble performance at 1 pm and 2:30 pm and get your face painted with Mrs. Pamela.
