Police seek public's help in finding missing person

RIVERSIDE, CA — On Friday, July 09, 2010, patrol officers from the Riverside Police Department responded to a residence in the 3900 block of Redwood Drive regarding a report of a missing person. A citizen reported that his male roommate had not been seen for one day; he found this unusual and reported him missing to police.

The missing man is identified as Donald William TOBIN, he is a 51-year-old Riverside resident and is described as a white male, 5 feet-9 inches in height and weighs approximately 165 pounds. A picture of Donald Tobin has been attached to this press release.

Today, Sunday, July 11, 2010, at about 8:10 a.m., Donald Tobin's vehicle was located at the parking lot of Carlson Dog Park at 4600 Mission Inn Avenue in the City of Riverside. Officers responded there and confirmed the vehicle was in fact Donald Tobin's silver 2007 Toyota Corolla. The vehicle was abandoned but personal items belonging to Donald Tobin were found inside.

Detectives from the Riverside Police Department's Centralized Investigations Unit responded and conducted follow-up investigation into this incident. At this time this matter is being investigated as a missing person and police are requesting anyone who may have any information regarding the whereabouts of Donald William TOBIN to contact police.

Anyone with information related to this investigation is urged to contact Detective Greg Rowe of the Riverside Police Department's Centralized Investigations Unit at 951-353-7136 or by calling the Riverside Police Department's Dispatch center at 951-787-7911.
