Gang Task Force Arrests

Riverside, CA – On Thursday, September 30, 2010 at about 07:00 am, Members of the Riverside Police Department and Riverside County Jurupa Valley Gang Task Force Seven conducted an operation targeting gang activity victimizing citizens of the Casa Blanca community in the City of Riverside.

Searches were conducted at seven locations, resulting in the recovery of drug related currency and the arrest of three subjects for possession of a firearm, possession of ammunition, sales of drugs and parole violations. The operation was the result of an on-going investigation by the Riverside County Jurupa Valley Gang Task Force Seven.

The Task Force is one of eight teams composing the Riverside County Regional Gang Task Force, which is a collaborative effort of 25 law enforcement agencies with the goal of combating criminal street gangs. The Riverside County Jurupa Valley Gang Task Force Seven team is staffed with members of the Riverside Police Dept, Riverside County Sheriff's Dept, Riverside County District Attorney's Office, Riverside County Probation Office, California Highway Patrol and California State Parole Office.

Anyone with information related to gang activity is asked to call Riverside Police Officer Adam Levesque at (951) 955-2634.
