Homicide: shooting at party; one male victim

Riverside, CA -- Riverside Police are investigating a homicide in southwest Riverside that occurred shortly after midnight Sunday.

At 12:16 a.m., Sunday, December 16, Riverside Emergency Dispatch received a call of shots fired at a residence in the 11000-block Inwood Drive. Officers arrived at a residence and discovered one male Hispanic victim of a gunshot wound.

According to initial investigation, a party had been underway at the residence when the victim arrived and was apparently shot as he entered the side yard through a gate.

Initial witness statements describe the assailant as a Hispanic male. There is no further suspect information available at this time.

The victim, whose identity has not yet been confirmed by the Riverside County Coroner, had been carried by friends to the front of the home, where he was treated by responding emergency personnel. The victim was transported to Kaiser Permanente Hospital in Riverside, where he was pronounced dead.

Investigation continues. No further information is available for release at this time.

Anyone with information helpful to this investigation is urged to contact Riverside Police Detective Greg Rowe at (951) 353-7136 or Detective Steve Shumway at (951) 353-7138.
