Citizen's Academy postponed

Riverside, CA -- The Riverside Police Department's 33rd Citizen's Academy, which was to have commenced on Thursday, January 17, 2008, has been postponed, RPD Community Services Group commander, Lieutenant Tim Bacon said.

The eight-week course, which outlined police programs and procedures for average citizens taking part, had 52 registered participants, Bacon said. There are no immediate plans to set a new schedule at this time, pending staff availability to conduct the course.

"We hope to resume this popular community-police program as soon as scheduling permits," Bacon said.
