Driver killed in early morning collision

Riverside, CA – On July 8, 2008, at approximately 0117 hours, officers from the Riverside Police Department responded to the area of Jurupa and Palm Avenues regarding a traffic collision. The investigation revealed a vehicle had traveled westbound Jurupa Avenue and turned northbound onto Palm Avenue. The driver lost control and the vehicle flipped onto its side. It continued northbound on the roadway and struck a legally parked, unoccupied, vehicle along the west curb of Palm Avenue.

The driver was the lone occupant of the vehicle. Medical personnel responded to assist and the driver was pronounced deceased at the scene. The identity of the driver is not being released pending notification of the next of kin by the Riverside County Sheriff Coroner's Department.

Any inquiries or individuals with any further information are asked to contact the Traffic Services Bureau at 951-353-7978.
