Residential burglary arrests

Riverside, CA -- Two suspects are in custody following a residential burglary in the Eastside neighborhood early Friday afternoon.

Shortly before 1 p.m., witnesses reported seeing three males enter a residence in the 2100-block of Carlton Place. Responding officers located three subjects walking northbound on Kansas Avenue from Carlton. One of the suspects discarded a duffle bag and fled on foot. Two of the suspects were apprehended at the scene.

The duffle bag was found to contain numerous household electronic items. Meanwhile, officers checking the residence found signs of forced entry and ransacking. The homeowner was contacted and identified the property from the duffle bag. The property was photographed for evidence and returned to the victim.

Two males, Juan TAYLOR, 20, and Sensei SIMMS, 18, both of Riverside, were arrested 459 PC – Burglary. A juvenile male suspect is at large but has been indentified.
