Suspects arrested in home invasion robbery investigation

Riverside, CA -- On Wednesday, October 22, 2008, at approximately 8 p.m., several adult male subjects entered a residence in the 1800-block of Steinman Street, in the city of Riverside. The subjects entered the residence through an unlocked front door and confronted three adult male occupants. The suspects, one of whom was armed with a handgun, physically assaulted the occupants while inside the residence.

Based on victim interview statements, one of the suspects knew one of the victims through a mutual acquaintance. The suspect was upset with the victim for having contact with a female acquaintance of his. The suspects continued to threaten and physically assault the three victims as they rummaged through the residence. During the incident, the suspects took computers, a flat screen monitor, Nintendo and Playstation games, and several other items.

During the investigation, two suspects were positively identified by the victims. On Thursday, November 20, 2008, with the assistance of the Riverside Police Department SWAT team, two residences in Los Angeles County (21800-block of Stone Pine Court in Diamond Bar and in the 18500-block of East Colima Road in Rowland Heights) were served with search and arrest warrants.

Suspects Andrew HUYNH, 19, of Diamond Bar, and Gee Young KIM, 19, of Rowland Heights, were taken into custody. Some of the property belonging to the victims was found at both locations. Both suspects were transported to the Robert Presley Detention Center and booked for 212.5 PC / 207 PC / and 136.1 PC.

The investigation is on-going for additional suspects not yet identified. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call Riverside Police Detective Rick Wheeler at (951) 353-7134.
