Burglary Investigation Leads to Identity Theft arrests

Riverside, CA -- On Tuesday November 25, 2008 investigators from the Riverside Police department conducted an investigation into numerous auto burglaries which occurred over a several month period in the 3400 block of Madison. Information was obtained leading to a search warrant being served in the city of Colton. During the service of the search warrant information was obtained leading investigators to a residence in the city of Beaumont.

Riverside Police Department investigators contacted the Beaumont Police Department and requested assistance to conduct a parole search at 1084 Magnolia Ave. Upon arrival two subjects immediately ran from the location but were quickly apprehended by officers.

A search of the residence located evidence of identity theft, vehicle burglaries and possession of narcotics. A total of four subjects were arrested on a variety of charges.

Mario Serna 36 of Colton, California was arrested for PC 496, Possession of Stolen Property, PC 12022.1, Committing a Crime While Out on Bail and PC 148, Resisting arrest.

Jennifer Cisneros 31 of Beaumont, California was arrested for PC 496, Possession of Stolen Property, PC 3056, Parole Violation and HS 11377, Possession of Methamphetamine.

Joel Lara 25 of Banning, California was arrested for PC 148, Resisting Arrest and PC 3056, Parole Violation.

Cristina Nano 26 of Beaumont, California was arrested for PC 530.5, Using the Name of Another to Avoid Prosecution and PC 3056 Parole Violation.

All four of the subjects were booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center on the above listed charges.

Investigators are continuing their investigation and have located several victims of identity theft. Anyone with further information is asked to contact Detective Steve Christiansen (951) 353-7951
