Attempted murder suspect arrested

Riverside, CA – On Thursday April 16, 2009, Detectives from the Riverside Police Department were investigating leads from an attempted murder that occurred on Tuesday April 14, 2009. The Detectives responded to a residence in the 6600 block of La Jolla Drive.

The suspect was located inside the residence and was taken into custody without incident. The suspect is identified as Victor CORONA, 24 and is believed to reside at the location.

On April 14, 2009, Victor CORONA entered a business in the 5900 block of Van Buren and demanded cash from the owner of the business. The female victim told CORONA that she did not have any cash, at which point CORONA attacked and stabbed the female several times. Before leaving the business it is believed that CORONA took property from the business and then fled in the victim's vehicle.

Detectives were able to locate items taken during the robbery inside the residence and later found the victim's vehicle at a different location. Detectives believe that CORONA was alone during the incident and no additional suspects are being sought at this time.

Suspect CORONA was booked into Riverside County Jail for Attempted Murder, Robbery and Burglary.
