Prostitution Sting results in 11 arrests

RIVERSIDE, CA –On Thursday, May 21st, 2009, members of the Vice Unit, Gang Unit, and East NPC Officers, assisted U.N.E.T. with a prostitution “John” Sting. UNET is a cooperative unit of the Riverside Police Department (RPD) and the University of California-Riverside Police Department (UCRPD).

The operation took place in the East NPC at University / Mesa. Three females were used for the operation that resulted in seven arrests for solicitation prostitution, two arrests for loitering for the purposes of prostitution, one arrest for possession of drug paraphernalia, and one arrest for narcotics for sale. In all, eleven arrests were made and nine vehicles were towed and stored.

The Riverside Police Department will continue to be proactive in their enforcement efforts against this type of activity along the University Ave. corridor.
