Near Drowning

Riverside, CA – On September 3, 2009 at about 1745 hours the Riverside Fire Department and Riverside Police Department responded to 6822 Palos for a possible drowning call.

Police Officer C. Olivas was the first responder on scene. He found an unconscious 2 year male victim being tended to by family members. Officer Olivas began resuscitative measures until the arrival of paramedics from the Fire Department. The victim was transported to Parkview Community Hospital and later taken to Loma Linda University Medical Center for treatment. The victim's condition is not known at this time.

Detectives from the Central Investigations Bureau, along with an ID Tech were called out to investigate the incident.

Contact Detective M. O'Boyle for questions or inquiries at (951) 826-3263.
