SUSPECT LOCATED AND ARRESTED AFTER ATTACKING FEMALE VICTIM

RIVERSIDE, CA – On Thursday, May 31, 2018, at about 6:45 p.m., Riverside Police Officers responded to a residence in the La Sierra neighborhood for a call of an assault with a deadly weapon. When they arrived, Officers contacted the female victim who was suffering from severe lacerations to her face. She alleged her boyfriend attacked her with a broken piece of glass causing deep physical wounds. The victim was taken to a local hospital and later received over 25 sutures for her facial injuries.

The suspect was known to the victim but had fled the scene prior to the arrival of paramedics and officers. With the help of the Riverside Police Department's Domestic Violence Unit, the suspect was identified as Ricardo Arredondo, 26-years-old of Riverside, and currently on parole. Our West Post-Release Accountability & Compliance Team (P.A.C.T.) searched for the suspect over the next couple days and arrested him on Saturday, June 2, at about 12:45 a.m., at the Scottish Inn Suites, in the 200 block of Lincoln Avenue in the city of Corona. He was later booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center for domestic violence, assault with a deadly weapon, aggravated mayhem, and parole violations. The suspect is currently in custody with no bail.

If anyone has information regarding this investigation, please contact Detective Dave Johansen at (951) 955-5832 or djohansen@riversideca.gov.
